

American Board of
ABFT
 Forensic Toxicology™

5540 N. Academy Blvd., Suite 230
 Colorado Springs, CO 80918

Phone: (719) 362-0452 • Website: www.abft.org

CONTINUING EDUCATION OPPORTUNITIES

Please note:

1. This is not a comprehensive list of all continuing education opportunities available and approved by the ABFT.
2. Continuing education must be forensic toxicology-related to be approved for ABFT continuing education points.

CE Provider	Website	Notes / Discipline
AAFS (American Academy of Forensic Sciences)	www.aafs.org	Membership organization: annual conference that includes workshops, scientific sessions for multiple disciplines including drug chemistry and forensic toxicology.
AAFS Connect (American Academy of Forensic Sciences)	https://accounts.aafs.org/aafs/AAFS-Connect/Content.aspx	Workshops, educational sessions, and more. Must create AAFS web account to access.
CAT (California Association of Toxicologists)	https://cal-tox.org/	Membership organization: fall and spring meetings that includes scientific sessions for toxicology.
CFSRE (Center for Forensic Science Research and Education)	https://www.cfsre.org/education	Research organization offering forensic education through webinars, symposia, workshops, and live virtual conferences.
IACT (International Association of Chemical Testing)	www.iactonline.org	Membership organization: annual meeting that includes sessions pertaining to chemical tests related to traffic safety.
JAT (Journal of Analytical Toxicology – Editor’s Choice)	CE opportunity communicated by email to SOFT members only	Periodic opportunity to read an Editor’s Choice article and answer a series of questions designed to verify that the article was read.

MAAFS (Mid-Atlantic Association of Forensic Scientists)	http://www.maafs.org/	Membership organization: annual meeting that includes scientific sessions for toxicology.
MAFS (Midwestern Association of Forensic Scientists)	https://www.mafs.net/	Membership organization: fall annual meeting that includes scientific sessions for toxicology.
MATT (Midwest Association of Toxicologist)	http://www.midwesttox.org/	Membership organization: annual meeting that includes scientific sessions for toxicology.
RTI International – FTCOE (RTI International – Forensic Technology Center of Excellence)	www.forensiccoe.org	The FTCOE is dedicated to elevating the status of forensic science through advancing technology, sharing knowledge, and addressing challenges. Educational opportunities include webinars, workshops, podcasts, and resources for all disciplines including forensic toxicology.  Certificates of completion available for online resources as requested upon completion.
SAT (Southwestern Association of Toxicologists)	https://saot.wildapricot.org	Membership organization: annual meeting that includes scientific sessions for toxicology.
SOFT (Society of Forensic Toxicologists)	www.soft-tox.org	Membership organization: annual conference that includes workshops, scientific sessions for forensic toxicology.
TIAFT (The International Association of Forensic Toxicologists)	https://www.tiaft.org/	Membership organization: annual conference that includes workshops, scientific sessions for forensic toxicology, regional and online events.